

Weds 6 April 5 pm (prompt!)	Tea Time Ride Give yourself a break from tea time TV and clock up some miles with KJCC! We should be rolling back into the village around 6.30 pm in good time to share some chips at the pub (bring money if you want to do this). Dulford, Clyst William cross, Danes Mill.11 miles.
Sunday 17 April 10 am	The Wild West There's a secret world of winding lanes just west of Cullompton. We'll find some of them on this ride. Sutton, Brithem Bottom, Ash Thomas, Halberton. 15 miles.
Thursday 21 April midday	Going Cuckoo? It's now the second week of the Easter Holidays – running out of things to do? Join KJCC for a boredom busting ride. Our route will take us up onto the canal at Burlescombe via Uffculme and back home along the railway path. We could hear a cuckoo on this ride – Stuart will issue everyone with a souvenir cookie if we do, so listen out for one!18 miles.
Friday 29 April 10 am	Royal Wedding special-Budleigh and back. Escape the wedding with our classic ride to Budleigh beach and back. 38 miles round trip - the perfect sampler for our tour of Brittany in May. Pack a picnic or bring some money for chips! Home by 5 pm. 38 miles.
Friday 06 May 4pm til late	Bike Doctors Don't forget the Bike Doctors (and Creperie!) will be at Kentisbeare School 4 pm til late! Consultation and service £5 plus parts.
Saturday 07 May 2pm	Trapped! Our final ride in this series will take us up the Culm valley to Hemyock and back down the far side to Culmstock. We'll be stopping at the Little Shop of Horrors as guests of Alistair and Jenny Pearce for another look at the strange and interesting world of insectivorous plants. The venus fly traps should be in flower. Bring £2.50 for tea and cake at Strand Stores 16 miles.

All rides leave from Kentisbeare Village Hall
